As a house devoted to continuous vaudeville and opera performances, the Union Square, which threw open its its new doors yesterday, should be a great success. It has a splendid location; it is in the heart of the shopping district, and its management will be spurred on by acute competition to cater carefully to the public. The house has been redecorated and improved in every way, and the first performance was very good. Crowds of people visited the new vaudeville institution. The operatic attraction was "Ship Ahoy!" and the walley bill included Bryant and Rich.

She wore some very elaborate costumes, and her presence literally filled the eyes—in fact, both eyes. Miss Vernon sang a number of songs and was received in a very friendly way, ther appearance, however, is better than her volce. Another newcomer was Mille. Edme Lescot, a French "eccentric singer" of the most approved style. The "Versailles" ballet was given in all its glory.

The newcomers at the Imperial Music Hall last night were Les Figaros, from Vienna; the acrobatic De Bolien brothers and Gillette, and Henry Harmey, a Copenhagen mimic. They are all clever and worth seeing. The bill also included Marie Collins, who has now become a "favorite;" Bentley and Cameron, Felix and Claxton, Cissy Lind, Kitty Ciayton, John W. Myers, the Tacchos, the Avolos, and Miss Delmore.

Prominent speakers will deliver addresses. Good music and a bounteous supply of refreshments will be furnished. The following committee has been appointed to manage the affair: August Grage Chairman; P. J. Collins, Secretary, William Barton, Treasurer; John J. Butler, Sergeant-aut-Arms; Owen V. McZarthy, John Henry, Martin Gannon, Christ McDermott, W. Conlon, R. McDermott, P. J. Meskill, Frank J. Derrey, John H. Stout, Patrick McGlory, Josh. W. Pierre, George Denise, John L. EDEN MUSEE. "The Lovely Meteor" is the name of the new illusion that was presented at the Eden Musee last night. It showed a pretty woman walking, riding and revolving in midair, without any visible support. Adele Purvis Onri, Mme. Zaida, the high-kicking Girards and Danko Gabor's Hungarlan band were other attractions. To the waxwork collection has been added a figure representing the new infantile arrival at the White House. DORIS'S MUSEUM.

Fanny Herring, an actress who is wonderfully popular with the Eighth Avenue people and might be seen with advantage by most stage lovers, returned to Doris's Eighth Avenue Museum and appeared as the heroine of a thriller entitled "The Far West; or. The Fifth Shot." Miss Herring was very well supported. In Theatre No. 2 the Leicester Square London Specialty Company gave hourly vaudeville entertainments.
